The Story:

In 1928 an 18yr old rider named Jimmy Walthour clean the clock of the Pro's in the Detroit 6 Day held in Olympia Stadium. Now, 81 yrs later another young rider did the same thing in the Detroit 6 Day – 18 yr old Iggy Silva. As Jimmy was paired with another young rider from Italy, Iggy was paired with a 16yrs old rider of Italian decent – Nick Console.

2009 NAS-TRACK Detroit 6 Day
Day One Winners - Nick Console & Iggy Silva

1 Mile Sprints

Together, Team USA Iggy Silva and Nick Console were the dominate riders on the track but the other Teams weren't sitting around. Team Pink's Zach Stien started things out right by winning the first 1 Mile Sprint followed by Team Purple's Brendan Benson. Team USA came back and won the second 1 Mile Sprint.

50 Lap Madison

The Madison is the heart of track racing. It is the true test of speed, endurance and smarts and Team USA proved that had all three. The first sprint was won by Team USA followed by Team Red's Daniele DeFranceschi and Nick Laughton. Third place was Team Stars/Stripe's Barry Miller and Blaine Benson. The final sprint of the first Madison again was won by Team USA followed by Team Red and Team Neon's Luke Cavender and Nick Bayma.

Miss & Out

Let's go back to the UIV 3 Day earlier this summer. All three Miss & Outs were a battle between Iggy Silva and Daniele DeFranceschi. Well, the battle continued – although Iggy won the best of three during the UIV 3 Day during Day 1 of the Detroit 6 Day Daniele got his revenge by beating Iggy to the line. This battle could go on for 5 more days and the crowd will love it.

100 Lap Madison

Team Red won the first sprint followed by Team Neon and Team Stars/Stripes. The second sprint was won by

Team Red again – followed by Team USA and Team Stars/Stripes. The third sprint was won by Team Neon followed by Team Stars/Stripes and Team Pink's Zach Stien and Rick Denman. Team Red and Team Stars/Stripes were gaining points on Team USA. It was coming down to the final sprint but Team USA wasn't waiting around for the finish. Team USA put the hammer down after the third sprint and opened up a ¼ lap lead and it stayed that way to the finish with Team USA winning the final sprint. Team Purple's Brendan Benson and Dena Eaton, although a lap down, contested the final sprint and came in second with Team Red coming in third.

The real story is Team USA's Iggy Silva and Nick Console, both teenagers, dominated the night and won Day 1 of the 2009 DETROIT 6 DAY! CONGRATULATIONS
