The Story: by Dale Hughes

The HEAT, the SUN! Another great day of Madison racing. The Winning TEAM of the DETROIT 6 DAY would be the top two riders with the most points. So, before the race started Iggy and Luke already had the top two places locked up barring a bad crash but being great competitors they both wanted to have the most points. Team USA's Iggy Silva and Team Neon's Luke Cavender both knew they had a hard day ahead of them but while Team USA and Team Neon were focused on each other it was Team Purple's Cody Brown and Nick Console that made the race fast and hard. They almost pulled off Day 6 win but Team USA's Iggy Silva proved he was the best bike rider in the DETROIT 6 DAY! REALLY GREAT MADISON RACING! Congratulations again to Iggy Silva and Luke Cavender - Winners of the DETROIT 6 DAY.

1 Mile Sprints

Team Purple won the first sprint followed by Team Red and Team USA. Team Neon won the second sprint followed by Team Red and Team USA.

60 Lap Madison

* because of the heat - race distance reduced to 50 laps with 2 sprints. Team Purple won the first sprint followed by Team USA and Team Neon. Team USA won the second sprint followed by Team Purple and Team Red.

Miss & Out

Team Neon's Luke Cavender showed how smart and strong a rider he is by winning the Miss & Out. Second place went to Team Purple's Nick Console. The IVBP is extremely proud of Luke Cavender and Nick Console as riders and as human beings!

100 Lap Madison

* because of heat - race distance reduced to 80 laps with 4 sprints. Team USA won the first sprint followed by Team Purple and Team Red. Team USA won the second sprint followed by Team Purple and Team Red. Team USA won the third sprint followed by Team Red and Team Purple. The final sprint of the DETROIT 6 DAY was won by Team USA followed by Team Red and Team Neon.
